Why are we being miserable in the year 2025

Anyways

"UnPoPuLaR TaKe"

How about you make taking a shower popular, you're a FURRY, humble yourself mfr

Same mfrs that like to touch animals btw, oh and draw lolicon art but furry then claim it's not pedophilic, oh and claim a child fetish they have is a kink under the guise of age regression despite these same people having literal rings of CP

Oh and bite people's finger off at a furry con, or hotbox their con rooms, or vandalize property with zoophile stickers, or abuse actual fish by including them in sexual intercourse

undead.reverie You are a hypocrite I fear 💔

Good luck with that, you are not a victim. (Not completely anyways)

The g0re was wrong, no shit and I do regret doing it

As for "crying wolf" I haven't liked the furry fandom in years and wanted to leave even before I got my suit

So no, I'm not "sorry now that I've lost something I love" because the love was not there to begin with

The community was nothing more than a parasite on my mental and emotional health and this little situation was the straw that broke the camel's back

You could have absolutely decided not to be hateful that day but chose not to, my response initially was justified but nothing else that followed it was.

The apology I have is not for you, it's for the other people who may have been inadvertently hurt by my actions. Friends who care for me and followers who looked up to me. I do not want your forgiveness angel as you have not earned my respect. But if you're gonna make a beaver you should show the part where
